Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Notes on Some of the Antique and Renaissance Gems and Jewels in Her Majesty s Collection at Windsor Castle: Communicated to the Society of Antiquaries This examination was made with a view to reporting on the collection for Her Majesty s private information. Availing myself of this privilege to make a preliminary descriptive list of the whole series, I was the more strongly impressed with the great excellence of some of these examples of antique and Renaissance art, and suggested that application might be made for permission to take photographs or drawings of the 2)rincipal specimens. That permission has been most liberally accorded, and the accompanying illustrations exhibit some of the more remarkable objects in the Royal Cabinet. The Collection is, at present, arranged in two glazed tabular cases, that occupy corresponding places on either side of a door of entrance to the elegantly decorated room known as the Private Audience Chamber in Windsor Castle. It numbers in all 292 objects of a somewhat heterogeneous character, for among them are works representing the most developed period of the GrecoRoman scalptor sart, others descending through the Byzantine to the period of the Renaissance, and many by the more imitative artists of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries of our era. Among the latter not a few are portraits, the majority of which, although not at present recognised, are of considerable interest, and might afford profitable stvly in tracing, and as far as possible verifying, their likeness to the originals whom they may represent. My present purpose is not, however, to undertake a work of this nature, but merely to draw attention to, and put more distinctly on...
