Michael R. Maddox, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 230 x 154 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Renowned historian of the American West, Frederick Nolan, author of The West of Billy the Kid and The Lincoln County War: A Documentary History, noted that with the publication of this new book Maddox has written a whole new chapter in outlaw history. -- During the first week of May 1881 the Santa Fe New Mexican carried two reward notices from Governor Lew Wallace. One was for $500 for William Bonney, alias The Kid and directly below that was another reward notice for $2250 for Ike Stockton and his gang. Like Billy the Kid, Ike had a price of $500 on his head. Compared to the Kid, few have ever heard of Ike Stockton. Fewer still have heard of his older brother, Porter. Yet it was Porter Stockton who was by far the most dangerous and deadly of the brothers. In March 1881 the Las Vegas (New Mexico) Optic described Porter Stockton as one of the most hardened murderers and desperadoes that ever darkened the pages of history and annals of crime. Countless hours of research over a period of six years have resulted in this thorough and entertaining account of the turmoil caused by the Stockton brothers. From cattle kings to cowboys, from cow towns to hell on wheels railroad camps and from shootouts to lynchings, their story encompasses all of the legends of the mythic American West. Take hold of this book like you would the reins of a skittish horse, find the sweet spot in the saddle, or better yet your easy chair, and settle in for a hell of a ride. NOTE: Non-fiction, softcover, 530 pages. This book includes a bibliography, endnotes...
