Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Come On In invites readers into the life of a person learning to live again. The poems are written in a style that is sometimes playful and light, but also serious. Trampolines, forgiveness, summer storms, fear, God, watermelon and a rainbow go hand in hand with each other. The theme of this book is to search for connection to a universal source. Heleen Mantel (1970) studied social sciences, but soon began a career as a singer and as a song and dance teacher. Chronic pain caused a disruption in her life. She began writing and drawing to provide another way to express herself. She currently works in a nursing home where she plans creative activities for the elderly.
